My dear Bro I have just time to entreat you to suspend all movements in the West in regard to a Methodist paper until you hear from the Brook Committee & Agents. I have read your letter, have long been of your opinion, will advocate a Western paper to be established at Cincinnatti, published by the Agents there, & believe the Agents here, & Brook Com. will consent. I will do my best for your Western paper - Be patient, & spread abroad the expectation of a paper speedily - As ever Yours J. P. Durbin.
